

free-range THINKING™

free-range thinking™ is a monthly journal of best practices, resources and generally useful stuff for public interest communicators who want to reach more people with more impact

More Free "Webinar on Webinars" in May

Since April 2nd, we've been offering free classes of "The Webinar on Webinars" to help public interest organizations run more engaging and productive gatherings online. Every class in April filled to capacity, so we're announcing four more free sessions this month: May 7 (10-11a PT), May 12 (1-2p PT), May 14 (1-2p PT) and May 18 (9-10a PT). Each live class will have a maximum of 25 participants (because limiting the size of online trainings is one of our guidelines), so if you're interested, register now here.

We have also been scheduling separate classes for organizations that can assemble fifty or more participants on their own, and over the last month we have partnered with the Bank of America Charitable Foundation, the University of Florida, the Annie E. Casey Foundation, Philanthropy California, HealthPath Foundation, America's Promise Alliance, Capacity Canada, Encore.org, Grantmakers for Effective Organizations, and the Council for the Advancement and Support of Education.

If your organization has a large number of staff members, grantees, or affiliates, please contact us (andy@thegoodmancenter.com) and we'll see if we can schedule a separate webinar just for you. And in the meantime, please stay safe, stay well, and we'll look forward to seeing you face to face (with or without masks) before too long.
